About Norfolk Music Hub

Norfolk Music Hub is a partnership of organisations and schools who engage with Norfolk's children and young people in music making. We are funded by the Department of Education; our grant is administered by Arts Council England to create more opportunities for children and young people to get involved in music.

Introduction

Norfolk Music Hub is delighted to announce a limited number of grants is being made available for Complex Needs settings. The funding is to enable pupils and teachers to work with professional practitioners/ community music leaders on a music project of their design and appropriate to their setting.

A fund of up to a maximum of £1,000 per school is available.

To be eligible schools must be signed up to a Hub Subscription Package and projects must link to an appropriate core or extension role of the National Plan for Music Education. (See page 4)

Norfolk Music Hub will not direct the projects. Schools will make their own arrangements with music practitioners or organisations, for whom a brief description of their provision and costs is required.

Funding is limited to one grant per school signed up to a Norfolk Music Hub Subscription package.

Decisions for the funding allocation will be taken by managers of the Norfolk Music Hub.

The funding is earmarked for direct use by schools from the wider Music Hub funding for music education awarded by Arts Council England.

Application is quick & easy – you just need to complete a short application form online and then complete a simple evaluation form at the end of the project.

Please note: funding is intended to support projects with professional practitioners. It is not able to support the purchase of musical instruments or other equipment.
