Young Composers Course

Calling young composers aged 14–18!

This is a unique opportunity to hear your own composition performed by staff from Junior Guildhall and Guildhall School, and to participate in one to one lessons and workshops.

The course, which will take place over Zoom, is designed for students working towards GCSE or A Level Music and/or students hoping to enhance their composition skills outside of an exam environment. Course tutors include: Paul Whitmarsh and Jeffery Wilson.

Places are limited. Students will be offered a place based on suitability for the course, which will be measured on an appropriate level of knowledge and experience in composition.

Cost: £450
